DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with the attorney for applicant, Michael j. D'Aurelio (Reg. No. 40,977) on November 18, 2004.

The application has been amended as follows:

1. (Currently Amended) A printing method, comprising:

determining whether a non-rendered document received in a local printer from a portable device via a portable device communications port is embodied in a format compatible with the local printer;

relaying the a non-rendered document from the a local printer to a host coupled thereto if the non-rendered document is not embodied in the format compatible with the local printer; the non-rendered document being received in the local printer from a portable device via a portable device communications port; identifying one of a number of applications in the host that is compatible with the non-rendered document; rendering the non-rendered document with the one of the number of applications into a format compatible with the local printer, thereby creating a rendered document; and sending the rendered document to the local printer for printing.

Application/Control Number: 09/884,318

Art Unit: 2182

14. (Currently Amended) A printing system, comprising:

a host and a local printer coupled thereto, the local printer having a portable device communications port with which to establish a communications link with a portable device;

means in the local printer for determining whether a non-rendered document received in the local printer from the portable device via the portable device communications port is embodied in a format compatible with the local printer;

means in the local printer for relaying the a non-rendered document received via the portable device communications port to the host for rendering if the non-rendered document is not embodied in the format compatible with the local printer; means for determining a file type of the non-rendered document; means for identifying one of a number of applications in the host that is compatible with the file type;

means in the host for orchestrating a rendering of the non-rendered document into a rendered document with a printer format compatible with the local printer, the non-rendered document being rendered using the one of the number of applications in the host; and means in the host for transmitting a rendered document to the local printer to be printed.

17. (Currently Amended) A printing system, comprising:

a host and a local printer coupled thereto, the local printer having a portable device communications port with which to establish a communications link with a portable device;

means in the local printer for determining whether a non-rendered document received in the local printer from the portable device via the portable

device communications port is embodied in a format compatible with the local printer; means in the local printer for relaying the a non-rendered document received via the portable device communications port to the host for rendering if the non-rendered document is not embodied in the format compatible with the local printer;

means in the host for orchestrating a rendering of the non-rendered document into a rendered document with a printer format compatible with the local printer, the non-rendered document being rendered using the one of the number of applications in the host;

means in the host for transmitting a rendered document to the local printer to be printed; and wherein the means in the host for orchestrating the rendering of the non-rendered document into the rendered document further comprises means for launching the one of the number of applications in the host with instructions to print the non-rendered document using the local printer.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

the prior art, individually or in combination does not teach determining whether a non-rendered document received in a local printer from a portable device via a portable device communications port is embodied in a format compatible with the local printer; and relaying the non-rendered document from the local printer to a host coupled thereto if the non-rendered document is not embodied in the format compatible with the local printer;

the prior art, individually or in combination does not teach a document relay
